

Griffith University

Urban Research Program on the Gold Coast

We are pleased to invite you to an informal seminar to be led by Professor Peter Spearritt

“SAVING THE GOLD COAST FROM ITSELF”

Friday 9 November 2007
2.00 – 3.30

Venue: Room G3.17, Arts and Education Building G31
Gold Coast Campus

Peter Spearritt is Professor of History at The University of Queensland and former Executive Director of the Brisbane Institute. Peter's interests cover the planning and history of our cities (Sydney's Century, UNSWP 2000), the nature of tourism and image making (Holiday Business: Tourism in Australia since 1870, MUP 2000), the implications of the 200k city from Noosa to the Tweed (Seeing Brisbane, 2002) and research on greenspace provision and the water crisis in SEQ. He contributed to the exhibition and catalogue for Sold! The Gold Coast Real Estate Dream (GG City Art Gallery 2006).
