

Call for Papers

Publishing innovative and engaging socio-legal, inter-disciplinary and critical legal research. Our focus is international and we engage with world-wide issues and agendas. A particular emphasis has been contributing a southern perspective on these. While open to all socio-legal, interdisciplinary and critical legal research, we are particularly interested in manuscripts concerning:

- Empirical Studies of Law and Lawyering
- Contemporary Legal Theory
- International Law and International Relations
- Feminism/ Queer Theory
- Law and Popular Culture
- Comparative Legal Scholarship Exploring North/South

Opportunity exists for manuscripts of merit to be considered for the three issues scheduled for Volume 19, 2010.

Submission of manuscript for:

- (2010) 19(1) - 16 January 2010;
- (2010) 19(2) - 31 March 2010; and
- (2010) 19(3) - 30 June 2010.

Expressions of interest and submission to:

glr@griffith.edu.au

Nathan, Queensland 4111 AUSTRALIA

170 Kessels Road

c/o Griffith University

Griffith Law Review

Griffith

LAW

Review

A Journal of Social and Critical Legal Studies

A publication initiative of the Socio-Legal Research Centre

www.griffith.edu.au/law/griffith-law-review

Griffith Law Review Volume 18(2) 2009

General Issue with Symposium – The Lex of Somatechnics
General Issue Editors: Lillian Corbin and Bronwyn Statham
Symposium Editors: Maria Giannacopoulos and
Associate Professor: Joseph Pugliese

The Articles:

Symposium: The Lex of Somatechnics

Joseph Pugliese and Maria Giannacopoulos Symposium: The Lex of Somatechnics

Deniese Ferreira da Silva No-Bodies: Law, Racality and Violence
Penny Pether What is Due to Others: Speaking and Signifying Subject(s) of Rape
Law David S Caudill Legal Responses to Body Burdens: Discourses on Low-Dose Toxicity
Juliet Rogers Beyond the Script of Law: Dildos, Tranny Cops and Protesting Anti-Terrorism Dinesh Joseph Wadiwel The War Against Animals: Domination, Law and Sovereignty
Trish Luker Reading the Evidentiary Void: The Body at the Scene of Writing
Joseph Pugliese Preincident Indices of Criminality: Facecrime and Project Hostile Intent
Maria Giannacopoulos The Normos of Apologia

General Articles

Charles Sampford and Margaret Palmer The Constitutional Power to Make War: Domestic Legal Issues Raised by Australia's Action in Iraq
Tawia Ansah New Adventures of Old Pauline
Law Ann Black and Nadirsyah Hosen Fatwas: Their Role in Contemporary Secular Australia
Nan Seuffert Reflections on Transgender Immigration
Anna Chapman Employment Entitlements to Carer's Leave: Domesticating Diverse Subjectivities
Odette Mazel Development in the 'First World': Alleviating Indigenous Disadvantage in Australia - the Dilemma of Difference
Tony Bogdanoski Every Body is Different: Regulating the Use (and Non-Use) of Cosmetic Surgery, Body Modification and Reproductive Genetic Testing

About the Griffith Law Review: The Griffith Law Review is dedicated to the socio-legal, inter-disciplinary, critical and theoretical study of law. All articles are subject to two blind peer reviews. The Review is published in one volume of three parts annually. It is indexed and available full-text through the leading law and social science services. In 2010 the Griffith Law Review - A Journal of Social and Critical Legal Studies will become Griffith Law Review - Law Theory Society.

Order your Vol 18(2) issue now at the special price of $25.00 (AUD)/ $30.00(AUD) for buyers outside AU and NZ. GST and postage are included. Full subscriptions for Vol 18(1), (2) & (3) 2009 &/OR Vol 19(1), (2) & (3) 2010 can also be ordered on this form:

Institutions: $77.00 (AUD)/ $80.00 (Outside AUS)
Individuals: $55.00 (AUD)/ $60.00 (Outside AUS)
(prices per subscription period).

Order by mail with this form, or fax your order to +61 (7) 3735 4388. Alternatively, send us an e-mail at glr@griffith.edu.au and we will get in touch.

Please make cheques payable to Griffith University. For more information, visit our website www.griffith.edu.au/law/griffith-law-review

Please charge my credit card AUD $ _____
For: (tick) Vol 18(2) only Vol 18(1), (2) & (3)
 Vol 19(1), (2) & (3)

Cardholder Name: _____

Credit Card No: _____

Expiry Date: ____/____/____

Card Type: (tick) Bankcard Mastercard Visa

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Billing Address: _____

Mailing Address: _____