

Professional Development Network – For School Leaders

Join your active & local PDN
Experience the difference

Since 1995 – A tradition of relevance, individuality and professionalism in proud partnership with Griffith University ...

School leaders and aspiring leaders benefit from the Professional Development Network's program of timely and thought-provoking professional development. As a subscriber, you will have the opportunity to participate in the range of activities the PDN committee organises each year including our highly successful and much talked about annual Conference and Leadership Breakfasts. The PDN operates through subscriptions and support from its members at events.

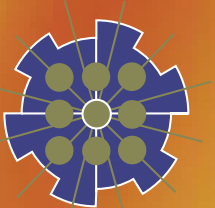

PDN is the affordable professional development option, run by local Principals for the benefit of local Principals and their staff ...

- PDN subscriptions range according to school size from only $66 to $297 per school.
- Fantastic discounts available for members of subscriber schools that participate in PDN activities throughout the year.
- No limit on numbers attending activities from subscriber schools.
- Complete the form overleaf and return it to the PDN with your payment for 12 months of cutting-edge professional development, discussion and networking opportunities.

Why join the PDN?

- The PDN is a not for profit educational, Queensland schools' network, operated by Principals for Principals and other educational leaders.
- More than 800 school leaders attend PDN activities every year.
- More than 170 schools subscribe annually to the PDN.
- Programs are tailored to meet local needs identified by members, and informed by systemic and global education issues.
- Subscribers enjoy discounted registration to a variety of cutting edge professional development, discussion and networking opportunities:
 - a two day residential conference
 - a minimum of two professional development and training activities per term, through half-day and full-day workshops;
 - an Educational Leadership Series breakfast address each term.
- Associate members are invited from non-government schools.
- The PDN is partnered by Griffith University's Centre for Continuing Professional Learning.
