

Programme

National Coastal Urbanisation Symposium 29th March 2004 – Robina Community Centre, Gold Coast

8.30am – 9.30am	Registration Tea & Coffee
9.30am – 9.40am	Symposium Opening Professor Glyn Davis AC Vice Chancellor, Griffith University
9.40 – 10.00am	Brendan Gleeson Seachange and Other Australian Idylls
10.00am - 11.00am	Graeme Hugo National Overview of Recent Population Distribution and Redistribution
11.00am – 11.30am	Morning Tea
11.30am – 12.15pm	Peter Murphy City-Hinterland Relationships: The Drivers of Coastal Urbanisation
12.15pm – 1.00 pm	Ian Burnley Socio-Demographic Aspects of Population Turnaround Population Growth in NSW
1.00pm – 1.45pm	Lunch

1.45pm – 2.15pm

Ross Barker

The Northern Drift: Recent Demographic and Urban Development Trends in Coastal Queensland

2.15pm – 2.45pm

Alison Taylor

Fanning the Winds of Change in SEQ: The Social and Economic Impacts of Coastal Growth and Tourism Urbanisation

2.45pm – 3.30pm

Kevin O'Connor

Understanding and Managing Coastal Economic Development

3.30pm – 4.00pm

Afternoon Tea

4.00pm – 4.30pm

Pat Troy AO

Coastal Urbanisation and Path
Dependency – Towards Sustainability

4.30pm – 5.15pm

Peter Spearritt

The Lure of the Coasts

5.15pm – 5.30pm

Summary & Close

Brendan Gleeson

Speakers

Ross Barker

Manager, Planning Information and Forecasting Unit, Queensland Department of Local Government, Planning, Sport and Recreation

Ian Burnley

Professor of Human Geography, Faculty of Built Environment, University of New South Wales

Brendan Gleeson

Professor of Urban Policy and Management, Urban Policy Program, Griffith University

Graeme Hugo

Federation Fellow, Professor of Geography, University of Adelaide

Peter Murphy

Dean and Professor of Planning and Urban Development, Faculty of Built Environment, University of New South Wales

Kevin O'Connor

Professor of Urban Planning, Faculty of Architecture & Planning, The University of Melbourne

Peter Spearritt

Executive Director, The Brisbane Institute

Alison Taylor

Principal Demographer, Planning Information and Forecasting Unit, Queensland Department of Local Government, Planning, Sport and Recreation

Patrick Troy AO

Emeritus Professor, Centre for Resource & Environmental Studies, Australian National University and Adjunct Professor, Griffith University