

The Urban Research Program is pleased to announce

A public symposium to mark the award of an Honorary
Doctorate by Griffith University to Emeritus Professor
Patrick Troy AO.

Vulnerability in the Australian City Towards security and sustainability

PROGRAM

1.30 – 1.45pm	Prof Brendan Gleeson. Director, Urban Research Program
1.45 – 2.30pm	Prof Frank Stillwell - Political economist. Author of ten books, including Understanding Cities and Regions and Reshaping Australia
2.30 – 3.15pm	Dr. Grace Karskens - Historian. Author of Inside the Rocks: The Archaeology of a Neighbourhood
3.15 – 3.45pm	Afternoon Tea
3.45 – 4.30pm	Prof Steve Dovers - Environmental scientist. Author of Environment and Sustainability Policy
4.30 – 5.00pm	Prof Patrick Troy AO
5.00 – 5.30pm	Award of Honorary Doctorate. Vice-Chancellor, Prof Ian O'Connor Presentation of degree and citation folder to Emeritus Professor Patrick Troy - Chancellor, Ms Leneen Forde AC Thank you to speaker - Vice Chancellor

Friday 5 May 2006

The Dell Gallery Theatre - Queensland College of Art
Griffith University, South Bank campus, Brisbane

Free attendance but limited places!

RSVP online by Monday 1 May 2006 at:

www.griffith.edu.au/centre/urp/events/troy_symposium/home.html