

Invitation
URP Lunchtime Seminar:

‘From the Outside Looking In - Rural
Land in the Sydney Region’
Ian Sinclair: Principal Consultant, EDGE Land Planning

Ian Sinclair is the Principal Consultant with EDGE Land Planning. He has a degree in Town Planning and a Certificate in Economic Development. He has 19 years of experience in rural planning. Prior to commencing his consultancy, he had 13 years experience in both development control and strategic planning working for Forbes, Orange, Wingecarribee and Wollondilly Councils. As a consultant, he focuses on Strategic Planning for rural councils, having worked for more than 20 councils. Ian has also travelled extensively in the United States and Canada studying rural planning. He also is a regular presenter at conferences and seminars in Australia and overseas. He is a regular contributor to New Planner, the magazine of the Planning Institute of Australia (NSW) where he has been writing an article titled 'A view from the Edge' since 1996.

12.30 - 1.30pm
Monday 29th August
ENS Dean's Meeting Room

Light Lunch provided

Limited spaces available - first in best dressed with RSVP's

RSVP no later than 12noon Wed 23rd August to:
Susan Hall, Events Coordinator, URP:
Email: s.hall@griffith.edu.au or phone: 3735 5176