

In-service Development Training Program in Interfaith Understanding and Dialogue
Proudly funded by the Queensland Government through Multicultural Affairs Queensland cordially invite you to an introductory session on

Sikhism

Core Beliefs and Practices and Role in the Contemporary World

This session is the eighth in a series of introductory sessions on various faith, religious and spirituality traditions, under this MAQ-funded program. It will provide a concise introduction of the core beliefs, values, principles, teachings and practices (personal, institutional) of Sikhism. It will also be helpful in understanding doctrinal and institutional differences among various sects and schools of thought within Sikhism, and in clarifying the perspective of Sikhism on contemporary world issues such as violence and non-violence, human rights, gender, ecological sustainability, and others.

August 14th 2008, 7.00 - 9.15 PM

Multi-Faith Centre, Griffith University, Nathan campus

Speaker

Gurjeet Singh

With a Master's degree in Chemistry from QUT, Gurjeet has been active in promoting Sikhism to other Australian communities. He regularly attends and represents the Sikh Community at numerous interfaith and multicultural events, and as a part of Sikh delegations at other Government events. He is involved in organizing seminars and teaching his native Punjabi language to Australian-born Sikh children.
