Meeting Sustainability

Friday 15 February 2008 – Sofitel Brisbane

CALL FOR PAPERS

The call for papers for the 6th Symposium on Accountability, Governance and Performance is now open. These papers can be case studies, experiences with implementing changes in the public sector system and other practical issues. Examples of papers focusing on accountability and performance issues from a sustainability perspective may include but are not limited to:

- ◆ Organizational performance and accountability
- ◆ Implementation and managing financial outcomes
- ◆ Risk management and internal control evaluation
- ◆ Environmental management and sustainable development
- ◆ Probity audit in the public and private sectors
- ◆ Corporate governance and financial reporting implications
- ◆ Fiscal responsibility
- ◆ Performance measures in the public and private sectors
- ◆ Economic value added analysis
- ◆ Project appraisal and accountability

Awards

Two cash prizes of $300 will be offered - one for the best paper submitted by a non-academic/practitioner; and the other for the best conference paper. Papers will be judged according to innovativeness and contribution to the theory and practice.

Submission of Papers

The deadline for submission of completed papers is 31st October, 2007.

It is hoped that authors will be advised of the acceptance of papers by 30th November 2007.

Papers should not exceed 25 A4 pages and should conform to the style and format of Accounting, Accountability & Performance. Submission guidelines can be accessed at the following web site: www.griffith.edu.au/school/gbs/afe/journal. All submissions will be blind reviewed by independent expert reviewers.

All accepted papers will be published as conference proceedings on the journal's website and will meet the DEST Research requirements for Conference Publications. Authors may also elect to have their papers considered for publication in Accounting, Accountability & Performance.

If you would like further information on the Symposium, please contact the Chairperson - Assoc Prof Nava Subramaniam on n.subramaniam@griffith.edu.au.
