The Centre for Work, Organisation and Wellbeing invites you to a

“Meet the Editors Session”

with

Prof Mark Stuart (“Work, Employment and Society”) &

Prof Tony Dundon (“Human Resource Management Journal”)

When: Friday 19th August, 2011 - 12:30pm to 2:00pm
Where: Room 2.02, N54 (Bray Centre)
Food: Lunch will be served upon arrival; please RSVP by Mon 15th August

The Centre invites Members and HDR students to attend this Q & A Session aimed to explore the many stages involved in how to publish a manuscript in a quality journal and what you can do to improve your chances of publishing success.

Chaired by WOW’s Prof Adrian Wilkinson, the workshop includes:

- Professor Mark Stuart (Leeds University, UK), the Co-Editor-in-Chief of Work, Employment and Society, and
- Professor Tony Dundon (NUIGalway), Co-Editor of the Human Resource Management Journal (HRMJ).

Bio: Tony Dundon is Senior Lecturer in Employment Relations and HRM at the J.E. Cairnes School of Business and Economics, National University of Ireland Galway. He previously worked at Manchester School of Management, University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (UMIST) and has held a number of international visiting research fellowships, at the Department of Work and Organisational Studies, University of Sydney; Bowater School of Management, Deakin University, Melbourne; and at the Centre for Employment Relations Research, University of Herefordshire. He has over 150 publications in the areas of employee consultation and employee voice, social partnership, organisational performance, HRM in small to medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), and non-union employment relations. Prof Dundon is Editor of the Human Resource Management Journal (HRMJ) and Chief Examiner for the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD): employee relations. He has held competitive research grants in excess of €1.5 million from a range of public and private sector bodies, including the IRCSS, ERSC, HEA, and Enterprise Ireland.

Bio: Mark Stuart is Professor of Human Resource Management and Employment Relations and Director of CERIC. His research interests focus on the dynamics of organisational restructuring and skill formation, trade union strategy and change and the modernisation of employment relations. His work has been funded by the European Commission, European Parliament, Department of Trade and Industry, the Economic and Social Research Council, International Labour Office, ACAS, TUC and numerous trade unions. Since 2001, he has won and led awards totalling more than 1.5 million pounds, including the co-ordination of a prestigious EU Framework Five funded study investigating the implications for employment and skills of the restructuring of the European steel and metal sectors. Mark sat on the editorial board of Work, Employment and Society (2004-2007) and is currently an editorial board member of the International Journal of Training Research, Labour and Industry and the Human Resource Management Journal.

General Enquiries and RSVP, Phone: (07) 3735 3714 Email: wow@griffith.edu.au