Each year the Australian Rivers Institute offers one Healthy Waterways Honours Bursary. Healthy Waterways is a not-for-profit, non-government organisation working collaboratively with its members from government, industry and the community to protect and improve our waterways for future generations to enjoy.

The personal bursary of $1,500 is available to students enrolling full-time or part-time in Honours at Griffith University in first semester 2016. An additional $1,800 in operating costs is provided to the successful applicant with this bursary.

Your application needs to include:
1. Your proposed Honours research topic.
2. An outline of your Honours project (250 words maximum).
3. Name of your principal supervisor, who must be an Australian Rivers Institute Researcher (and name of any associate supervisors).
4. An up-to-date CV including your address, email and phone number.
5. Current Memorandum of Results.

How to Apply:

Complete and submit the Healthy Waterways Honours Bursary Application Form.
