COURSE SUMMARY
This course is an innovative, Work-integrated Learning (WIL) experience where you participate in Deloitte’s globally recognised Innovation FASTRACK Challenge (FASTRACK). You will work in multi-disciplinary teams to develop a viable new business innovation.

Your team will be mentored by staff from Deloitte Australia and will be taken through a structured process to deliver a viable business innovation. In addition to developing a worthwhile innovation, your team will ultimately compete with other teams, and with other Universities for real recruitment, business and cash prize opportunities through Deloitte.

You can apply to enrol in Innovation Practicum from any Griffith Campus. Some travel will be required to Deloitte Brisbane offices on occasion and to meet with your team-mates.
