8 MAY 2010 • RYDGES HOTEL SOUTH BANK

ONE SPECTACULAR NIGHT ONLY!

A NIGHT IN SHANGHAI • 6.30 PM
Mingle with performers Anna Yen, Robert Keane and Queensland Conservatorium musicians in an unforgettable evening of fine food, music and dance from the early 1900s.

Part cabaret and music theatre, part role-play and spine-tingling intrigue, A Night in Shanghai transforms Rydges Hotel South Bank into the Mansion Hotel (1932), a place once frequented by European, American and Australian expatriates in China.

SHANGHAI JAZZ: China, the west and the rest • 9.00 PM
International Shanghai jazz stars Jasmine CHEN and John Huie join forces with Brisbane’s Steve Newcomb and the West End Composers Collective in an explosion of rarely heard jazz from 1930-50s Shanghai.
