The 2010 Griffith Blended Learning Symposium
An exciting Celebrating Excellence in Teaching Week event

You are invited to Griffith’s Blended Learning Symposium co-hosted by the GiHE and INS (Learning & Teaching).

When: Monday, 1st November 2010
Time: 9:00am – 1:30pm
Where: Multi Faith Centre, Nathan Campus

The Symposium aims to showcase exemplars of good practice in blended learning from each Academic Group and will be invaluable for all staff, both academic and professional, looking for ideas and strategies to develop, implement or enhance their own blended learning approaches. The Symposium will be conducted in close collaboration with the Group Blended Learning Advisors and will include opportunities for audience members to engage in discussion with the presenters about the impact of their blended learning approaches on learning and teaching outcomes.

Professor Sue Spence, DVC (A) will officially open the Symposium and the keynote address will be presented by Linda O’Brien, PVC (INS). The Symposium includes the ‘Exemplars Showcase’ and a blended learning ‘Expo’ featuring poster presentations of current blended learning innovations being used at Griffith.

Program

9:00 – 9:15 Registration, EXPO (poster display) (Tea & Coffee available)
9:15 – 9:30 Welcome Address and Opening Remarks
   Sue Spence, DVC (A)
9:30 – 10:10 Key Note Address
   Linda O’Brien, PVC (INS)
10:10 – 10:30 Morning Tea, EXPO and poster display
10:30 – 1:00 Exemplars Showcase
1:00 – 1:10 Closing remarks
1:10 – 1:30 Lunch, EXPO (poster display)

Please mark this important event in your diary now!

Information and Registration:

For information contact John Bourke (x21440) or your Group Blended Learning Advisor.
To Register, email: gihe-register@griffith.edu.au
This event will be video recorded.