Arts, Education and Law Group and Griffith Social and Behavioural Research College

DECRA 2011 Workshop Program

Workshop 1 – Mount Gravatt Campus
2.30 – 4pm Wednesday 30 March 2011
Room 5.01, M10 (Social Sciences)

Agenda

- Welcome and introduction to presenters - Jenny Wilson, Strategic Development Manager, AEL Group and Griffith Social and Behavioural Research College (on behalf of Professor Richard Bagnall, Dean Research AEL)

- Overview of technical requirements for DECRA applications - Ms Daina Garklavs, Deputy Director, Office for Research and Dr Nadia Hamilton, Grants Research Officer (Discovery)

- A Chief Investigator’s perspective of preparing ARC applications - Professor Brad Sherman, Deputy Head (Research) Griffith Law School and Director of Socio Legal Research Centre

- A Chief Investigator’s perspective of preparing ARC applications - Professor Kathy Daly, School of Criminology and Criminal Justice and Key Centre for Ethics, Law, Justice and Governance

- Q & A (Chair: Jenny Wilson)
Attendees are invited to ask questions to a panel comprising the above speakers, relating to the scheme or their specific applications.

- Close of Proceedings

Speakers

Ms Daina Garklavs, Deputy Director-Grants and Research Development, Office for Research
Daina has worked in the Office for Research since 1993 and has been involved in almost all aspects of research grants, research centre and research policy development and management.

Dr Nadia Hamilton, Research Grants Officer (Discovery), Office for Research
Nadia gained a PhD from her research into Epigenetics at the Queensland Institute of Medical Research. She also has a Bachelor of Molecular Biology and Genetics (Honours and University Medal) from the University of Sydney. Prior to joining Griffith University, Nadia worked in the Research and Innovation Division at the University of Queensland.
Professor Brad Sherman

Professor Brad Sherman is Deputy Head of School (Research) of the Griffith Law School, Director of Socio Legal Research centre, and Director of the Australian Centre for Intellectual Property in Agriculture.

He is one of the world's leading scholars in intellectual property research and has published widely his books having been translated into Arabic, Chinese and Russian. His most recent book 'Figures of Invention: A history of modern patent law' was published in 2010 by Oxford University Press.

Professor Sherman's ARC grants include:

- Promoting Plant Innovation in Australia: maximising the benefits of intellectual property for Australian agriculture (ARC Discovery 2009-11);
- Legal Protection of TV Programme Formats, (Linkage 2004-2006);
- Gene Patents (Discovery 2003-2005);
- IP and the Rural Sector (Linkage 2003 – 2005);
- Botanical Innovation (Linkage 2003-2004);
- Copyright and Artists Contracts in a Digital Age (SPIRT 2000-2001);
- Cultural Breaches and Payback (Indigenous Researcher Development Grant 2000-2001);
- EU Database protection: implications for Australia (ARC Small Grant 1997-8);
- Legal and Cultural protocols for indigenous Art and Cultural Industries, (ARC Collaborative 1997-8).

Professor Kathleen Daly

Professor Kathleen Daly is Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice and a member of the Key Centre for Ethics, Law Justice and Governance.

A former Senior Fulbright Scholar, she is acknowledged as a leading international researcher in gender, race, crime and justice and has shaped academic thinking on restorative, indigenous and international criminal justice. She has published over 70 articles in journals, law reviews, and books. She is a Fellow of the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia, and immediate past President of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Criminology (2005-09).

Professor Daly's ARC grants include:

- Sentencing Indigenous Offenders of Partner Violence (Discovery 2009-2014);
- Innovative Justice Responses to Sexual Violence (Discovery 2008-2011);
- Contested Politics of the New Justice (Discovery 2004-2006)
- Studies of Sexual Assault and White-Indigenous Justice Relations (ARC Large Grant 2001-2003);
- Youth Conferencing in South Australia (ARC Large Grant 1998-99).