QUEENSLAND CHILD PROTECTION RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

25 November 2011 - 9am to 5pm

Keynote speaker
Professor Marianne Berry
Director of the Australian Centre for Child Protection, University of South Australia.

The aims for the symposium are:
- Showcase current and recent child protection research in Queensland
- Advance knowledge through in-depth discussion, intellectual engagement and reflection on child protection research
- Explore opportunities to connect and collaborate on research
- Promote the application of knowledge by the dissemination of symposium outcomes through publication

The symposium will be attended by researchers, policy makers and practitioners in the child protection field. It will provide a forum to the exchange of ideas and the establishment and strengthening of research connections in this field.

There will be 12-15 short papers followed by discussion.

Expressions of interest in presenting a paper – please provide an abstract of 100-150 words to c.tilbury@griffith.edu.au by 2 September 2011.

Venue to be advised. Full program will be forwarded closer to the date of the event.

This event is jointly funded by Griffith University, the University of Queensland and Queensland University of Technology
