STATEMENT OF AFFAIRS OF GRIFFITH UNIVERSITY – 2008

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1992

The Queensland Freedom of Information Act 1992 ("FOI Act") gives members of the community a right of access to documents held by Griffith University.

This Statement of Affairs is published in accordance with the requirements of section 18 of the FOI Act.

1. Structure and functions of Griffith University

The University’s functions are to:

- provide education at university standard;
- provide facilities for study and research generally and in particular for the people in the cities of Brisbane, Gold Coast, and Logan;
- encourage study and research;
- encourage the advancement and development of knowledge, and its application to government, industry, commerce and the community;
- provide courses of study or instruction (at levels of achievement the University Council considers appropriate) to meet the needs of the community generally and in particular, the people in the cities of Brisbane, Gold Coast, and Logan;
- confer higher education awards;
- disseminate knowledge and promote scholarship;
- provide facilities and resources for the well being of the University’s staff, students, and other persons undertaking courses at the University;
- exploit commercially for the University's benefit, a faculty or resource of the University, including for example, study, research, or knowledge, or the practical application of study, research, or knowledge, belonging to the University whether alone or with someone else; and
- perform other functions given to the University under the Griffith University Act 1998 or any other Act.
2. The ways in which Griffith University's functions (including its decision making functions) affect members of the community

Griffith University's teaching and research have always focussed on issues of prime importance to the community. The University works with governments and industry to develop solutions for some of the world's most challenging problems and applies its knowledge, research findings, cultural and physical resources to the enrichment of national and international communities. The University also plays a vital role in ensuring that the communities in which its campuses are located become even better places to live.

The decision making functions of the University affect members of the community by determining:

- the number of students who will be admitted to the University under educational programs;
- the policies by which the University functions within the community;
- the extent to which the University will be involved in research within the wider general community; and
- the extent to which the University will develop links with the wider community and collaborate on cultural, economic and social issues.

3. Arrangements that exist to enable members of the community to participate in the formulation of Griffith University's policy and the exercise of Griffith University's functions

Members of the community may participate in formulation of the University's policies and the exercise of its functions through membership of various University committees. Membership of some committees is subject to qualification criteria, for example, some positions are only open to students or staff members of the University, or to members of the governing body. The committees upon which community membership is available are as follows:

- University Council
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Advisory Committee
- Academic Committee
- Advisory Council for Gold Coast Campus
- Animal Ethics Committee
- Audit Committee
• Community Partnership Committee
• Council Nominations Committee
• Finance and Resources Committee
• Honorary Degree Committee
• Human Research Ethics Committee
• Legislation Committee
• TAFE Queensland and Griffith University Links Committee
