School of Dentistry and Oral Health

Bachelor of Oral Health in Dental Science [1259]

Instrument fees

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 1 of the program:

- a pair of safety glasses or safety goggles which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be AUD$12; and
- one white laboratory coat which may be purchased through the Book Shop at Parklands or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and design is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be AUD$35.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 2 of Year 1 of the program:

- a dental science technology instrument kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the dental science technology kit is estimated to be AUD$265.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 2 of the program:

- two blue laboratory coats which may be purchased through the Book Shop at Parklands or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and design is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be AUD$40 each; and
- a simulator clinic instrument kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health. The cost of the simulator clinic instrument kit is estimated to be AUD$450; and
- a simulation clinic bur kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health. The cost of the simulation clinic bur kit is estimated to be AUD$150; and
- simulation clinic models which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health. The cost of the simulation clinic models is estimated to be AUD$400.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 3 of the program:

- an articulator and face bow which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the articulator and face bow is estimated to be AUD$1550; and
- an technology bur kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the technology bur kit is estimated to be AUD$150.

Students will continue to use these instruments for the remainder of their study. The instruments will remain the property of the student and will be of use throughout their careers. Students are responsible for the continued maintenance of their instruments/equipment and must keep all instruments/equipment in good working order.

Use of School's clinical laboratory instrumentation

Students will incur the full cost recovery for any damaged or missing instruments or equipment that is the property of the School of Dentistry and Oral Health.
Bachelor of Oral Health in Dental Technology [1260]

Instrument fees

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 1 of the program:

- a pair of safety glasses or safety goggles which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be AUD$12; and
- two blue laboratory coats which may be purchased through the Book Shop at Parklands or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and design is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be AUD$40 each; and
- a technology instrument kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided it contains the same instruments and is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the technology instrument kit is estimated to be AUD$340; and
- a technology orthodontic pliers kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided it contains the same instruments and is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the technology orthodontic pliers kit is estimated to be AUD$250; and
- a technology bur kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided it contains the same instruments and is approved by the course convenor. The cost of the technology bur kit is estimated to be AUD$150.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 2 of Year 1 of the program:

- an articulator and face bow which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost of articulator and face bow is estimated to be AUD$1550.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 2 of the program:

- a dental technology bur kit (chrome) which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost dental technology bur kit (chrome) is estimated to be AUD$55.

The following instruments are to be purchased by students and are required from the commencement of Semester 1 of Year 3 of the program:

- a dental technology bur kit (ceramics) which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost dental technology bur kit (ceramics) is estimated to be AUD$55; and
- a dental brushes kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source provided the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost dental brushes kit is estimated to be AUD$50.

Students will continue to use these instruments for the remainder of their study. The instruments will remain the property of the student and will be of use throughout their careers. Students are responsible for the continued maintenance of their instruments/equipment and must keep all instruments/equipment in good working order.

Use of School’s clinical laboratory instrumentation

Students will incur the full cost recovery for any damaged or missing instruments or equipment that is the property of the School of Dentistry and Oral Health.
Graduate Diploma of Dentistry [4136]

Instrument fees

Students will be required to supply their own Dental Science prosthetic instrument kit for the duration of the program. Students who have not previously purchased the kit during the course of their undergraduate program may purchase the kit through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or a kit may be obtained from an alternate source if it contains the same instruments and is approved by the course convenor. The cost of a prosthetics instrument kit is estimated to be about AUD$160.

Use of School's clinical laboratory instrumentation

Students will incur the full cost recovery for any damaged or missing instruments or equipment that is the property of the School of Dentistry and Oral Health.

Master of Dental Technology in Prosthetics [5402]

Instrument fees

An articulator and face bow which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source if the manufacturer name and model number is approved by the course convenor. The cost is estimated to be about AUD$1550. A general prosthetics instrument kit which may be purchased through the School of Dentistry and Oral Health or obtained from an alternate source if it contains the same instruments and is approved by the course convenor. The cost of a general prosthetics instrument kit is estimated to be about AUD$260.

Students will continue to use these instruments for the remainder of their study. The instruments will remain the property of the student and will be of use throughout their careers.

Use of School's clinical laboratory instrumentation

Students will incur the full cost recovery for any damaged or missing instruments or equipment that is the property of the School of Dentistry and Oral Health.