CELEBRATING TEACHING SEMINAR PROGRAM - 2011

The Celebrating Teaching Seminar Series for 2011 offers a new format which includes seminars and a round-table featuring outcomes of national (ALTC) and Griffith University learning and teaching projects. The seminar themes align with current University priorities in learning and teaching and the projects showcased demonstrate practical engagement with Griffith’s Principles to Promote Excellence in Learning and Teaching.

Seminar 1  Evidence-based Practice  Friday, 1 April
KEYNOTE (11.00 – 11.50am)

"First-Year students’ perceptions of assessment: Preliminary data and implications for practice".

Presenters:  Professor Keithia Wilson and Professor Alf Lizzio
School of Psychology

GRiffith Grants Showcase (12.00noon – 12.30pm)

Seminar 2  Round-table on capstone and senior year experiences  Friday, 26 August
KEYNOTE (10.00 – 11.45am)

Convenors:  Dr Liz Van Acker
Department of Politics & Public Policy
Associate Professor Janis Bailey
Department of Employment Relations & Human Resources
Professor Kerri-Lee Krause
Griffith Institute for Higher Education

GRiffith Grants Showcase (12.00noon – 12.30pm)

Seminar 3  Scholarly networks at Griffith University  Friday, 4 November
KEYNOTE (10.00 – 11.45am)

"Establishing and sustaining communities of practice".

Presenter:  ALTC Fellow, Jacqueline MacDonald
University of Southern Queensland

GRiffith Grants Showcase (12.00noon – 12.30pm)

Registration is essential.
To register for these workshop please email:  gihe-register@griffith.edu.au
For further information, please visit the GIHE’s website www.griffith.edu.au/gihe