Consequences of Changing Citizenship/Residency Status

When students change their Citizenship or Residency status, they may be eligible for a change in the rates of Tuition Fees charged for their current program of study, as per section 3.6.9 of the Fees and Charges Procedure.

Once you have lodged the form, Student Connect will verify the authenticity of your evidence of change in citizenship/residency.

Student Administration will then assess whether there will be a change to your fee status.

Your fees may change only if your citizenship/residency status changed before the Census Date* for the relevant trimester.

Your new tuition fee rates will depend on the Admissions Policy for your program of study and the trimester. You may be offered a Domestic Fee-Paying Place or a Commonwealth Supported Place. See Programs and Courses for applicable rates of charge.

Commonwealth Supported Places are only available for Undergraduate programs and for a small number of Postgraduate programs.

You will be advised of the outcome via your Griffith student email address, once the admissions assessment is complete.

[] Refer to the Academic Calendar [www.griffith.edu.au/academic-calendar] and the Programs and Courses catalogue [<https://www148.griffith.edu.au/programs-courses/>] for the Census Date of individual programs, or ask Student Connect.*

Section 3.6.9 of the Fees and Charges Procedure

3.6.9 Permanent Residency

If a student provides evidence of becoming a permanent resident of Australia prior to their commencement of study in the program and they subsequently apply for a place as an Australian resident student either as a Commonwealth Supported Student or a fee-paying student through the normal processes the offer of an international student place will be withdrawn, and all tuition fees will be refunded.

If, after commencing study in the program, a student obtains permanent resident status in Australia and provides evidence of permanent resident status prior to the census date, the student will be provided with either a Commonwealth Supported Place or a domestic fee-paying place through the normal admission processes. The student will be eligible for a refund of the difference between the fee as an international student and the fee for a domestic student for the period of study in which the residency status changed.

If a student obtains permanent resident status after the census date, the student will not be eligible for a full or partial refund of tuition fees paid for the period of study in which the residency status changed. On continuing their enrolment in the next period of study, the student will be provided with either in a Commonwealth Supported Place or a domestic fee-paying place through the normal admission processes.

The above processes also apply to an international student who becomes a New Zealand citizen during the course of their study.
