PICDPR and the Pacific's policymakers are proud to host the annual Pacific Research Conference, a gathering of policymakers, academics, and industry representatives committed to the principle that policy should be informed by research. The purpose of the concurrent Leaders Forum is to hear first-hand from the Leaders of the region (Governors and Ministers) on how things are in their economies—opportunities and challenges, especially post COVID-19. The forum provides a rare confluence of high-profile speakers and an equally rare opportunity for interaction and engagement.
