

You are eligible for admission to a Doctoral Degree if you have one of the following qualifications with at least 40CP (or equivalent) research component, having achieved specific Thesis and GPA requirements:

- Bachelor Honours Degree (AQF Level 8)
- Masters Degree, Coursework, Research, Extended (AQF Level 9).
- Graduate Diploma of Research Studies – each Academic Group at Griffith has discipline specific qualifications

If you do not have one of the qualifications listed above which includes the required minimum research component, based on your highest qualification achieved you will be eligible for admission to a Doctoral degree by undertaking further study as follows, provided you achieve specific Thesis and GPA requirements:

Having successfully completed one of the following awards:

- Bachelor Degree (AQF Level 7)
- Graduate Certificate / Graduate Diploma (AQF Level 8) that does not contain at least 40CP research component
- Masters Degree (Coursework - AQF Level 9) that does not contain at least 40CP research component

Complete one of the following awards to be eligible for admission to a Doctoral Degree:

- Bachelor Honours degree (1 year, 80CP)
- Postgraduate coursework or research program with at least 40CP or equivalent research component.

Click here for a complete list of approved programs at Griffith University which provide this pathway to PhD.

PATHWAYS to PhD and other Doctoral Degrees

Duration depends on discipline and AQF level of prior qualification
AQF – Australian Qualifications Framework
(refer to www.aqf.edu.au for details).

(A) Master of Science, Master of Medical Research only
(B) Master of Science, Master of Medical Research, Master Educational and Professional Studies, Master Arts only