Brief Description of Institution

Griffith University is a world-class, values-led university. Its teaching and research prioritise innovation and social impact, reflecting its belief that everyone deserves a chance to make a difference – for themselves and others.

The University has been a national leader in teaching awards and citations for over a decade. Its experienced teachers deliver high-quality degrees designed to prepare students for the future, developed in consultation with industry, and based on cutting-edge research.

Social and environmental responsibility drive everything Griffith does, from pioneering teaching in modern Asian studies and environmental science to its long-time commitments to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, social justice and sustainable practices.
