WHEN DO YOU USE THIS FORM?

The English Language Enhancement course is one component of Griffith's English Language Enhancement Strategy developed to boost the oral and written English language skills of international students and other students whose first language is not English and to maximise their chances of succeeding in their academic studies; <https://www.griffith.edu.au/students/english-language-enhancement-course>

International students commencing in the first or second year of an applicable bachelor degree from 2010 will study an English Language Enhancement course (ELEC) within their degree. This is a core (compulsory) part of the degree and not an additional course.

For information on whether ELEC is a requirement for your degree please refer to the Degree Requirements or Program Structure section of your degree on the Griffith Programs and Courses website <https://degrees.griffith.edu.au/>

If you believe you meet one of the grounds to be exempted from ELEC please complete this form in full, attach certified copies of documentary evidence, and submit the form as per Lodging Instructions below section.
