

ASIA PACIFIC CONFERENCE ON HUMAN EVOLUTION

25 - 27 June 2019
Brisbane, Australia

griffith.edu.au/conference-human-evolution

FIRST CIRCULAR

The inaugural Asia Pacific Conference on Human Evolution (APCHE) will be held at Griffith University, Brisbane Australia, from 25-27 June 2019.

APCHE aims to bring together experts working on all aspects of human evolution in the broader Asian and Pacific regions. The conference will run for three days of general sessions including papers on palaeoanthropology, biological anthropology, archaeology, genomics and palaeogenomics, primatology, as well as the disciplines engaged in understanding the environment and site-specific contexts of human evolution, human behaviour and art.

Venue

The conference will be held at Griffith University's South Bank campus situated close to Brisbane's city centre.

Key dates

- 15 January 2019: Call for Abstracts
28 February 2019: Deadline for travel grant applications
31 March 2019: Deadline for early registration and submission of abstract

Registration

	Before 31 March 2019	After 31 March 2019
Full participant	AU$300	AU$350
Student	AU$150	AU$200
Day registration	AU$150	AU$150
Conference dinner	AU$100	AU$100

The registration fee includes the welcome function (evening of 24 June), tea & coffee and lunches during the conference.

The registration and payment will be done online.

Travel Grants

Travel grants are available for researchers and students from low income countries. Full details, including eligibility criteria and the application form will be available on the conference website.

Invited Speakers include

- Jamsranjav Bayarsaikhan – The National Museum of Mongolia
Chris Clarkson – University of Queensland
Mina Weinstein-Evron - University of Haifa, Israel
Zenobia Jacobs – University of Wollongong
David Lambert – Griffith University
Lisa Matisoo-Smith - University of Otago, New Zealand
Mandy Mijares – University of the Philippines, Diliman
Thomas Sutikna - University of Wollongong
Jahdi Zaim - Institut Teknologi Bandung, Indonesia

Raymond Dart Lecture

The Raymond Dart Lecture will be presented on 25 June 2019 by Dean Falk, Florida State University.

Proceedings

We will seek to publish the proceedings of the conference in the Springer Vertebrate Paleobiology and Paleoanthropology series.

Sponsored by:

Griffith University
Wenner-Gren Foundation

Contact:

Website: griffith.edu.au/conference-human-evolution
Email: apche@griffith.edu.au