

Graduation December 2020

Monday 7 - Friday 11 December

Our December 2020 graduation ceremonies have been cancelled due to COVID-19. All eligible students will still graduate in December, but your award will be conferred “in absentia” (without a ceremony).

We’ll still be helping you celebrate your remarkable achievement in December and we’ll invite you to a February 2021 graduation ceremony soon.

Before graduation

There are a few steps to complete before you graduate and have your award conferred. The steps differ depending on the type of student you are.

Visit Your steps to graduation for the full details and deadlines, but here are the key steps:

After graduation

Graduation isn't the end of your Griffith connection; it's the start of your journey as a Griffith Alumnus. Stay connected to find out what's available to you for the next chapter of your relationship with us.

Visit Beyond graduation for more details, but here are some key points to note:

Check your University Communication email to access your digital degree certificate, official academic transcript and AHEGS.

These will be available within one business day of your conferral date.

Book an appointment with Careers and Employment for help with your job search.

This support is available for four months after your graduation.

Access to your student email account will change.

In addition to an @alumni.griffith.edu.au email, you'll also have limited access to O365 applications.

Complete our Graduation Experience survey to help shape the graduation experience for future graduates.

The survey will be sent to you soon after you graduate.

Details about future celebrations will be shared on griffith.edu.au/graduation
