ELIGIBILITY

If you have lived in an Australian rural area, ASGS-RA 2 to 5, for 5 full years consecutively (must be 60 full months) or 10 full years cumulatively (must be 120 full months), and you want to be considered for the Rural Access Scheme, please complete this coversheet and provide any documentary evidence to support your application.

Note: The rural residence claimed must be your current or previous primary residence and cannot include future places of residence. If you attended boarding school you can use your family's address as your primary residence, however, holiday homes, investment properties and secondary residences do not qualify.

To check your Australian Statistical Geographic Standard Remoteness Areas (ASGS-RA) category click here and enter your residential address.

Note: Griffith utilises the ASGS Remoteness Areas (2016) data to determine your RA classification.

DOCUMENTATION GUIDELINES

Type of documentation	Example of eligible documents
Supporting letters	Supporting letters can be from a school, university or workplace, health care professional, pharmacist or government agency stating your residential address during the period of enrolment/employment or engagement in that service. Each document must include the residential address, date of issue and dates marking the beginning and end of the time period to which the document refers.
Supporting documents	Other documents to verify duration of residency such as utility bills or bank statements showing your (or your family's) address at the time of issue, and dates/length of time of residency. These documents can be in your parents' name (s).
