

Professor Emeritus Arthur Brownlea AM (1930-2011) Arthur Brownlea was appointed a Foundation professor in the School of Australian Environmental Studies at Griffith University in Artnur browniea was appointed a roundation Protessor in the School of Australian Environmental Studies at Griffith University in School of Australian be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position be was responsible for the development of the position because the position becaus School of Australian Environmental Studies at Uniffith University in 1974. In this Position he was responsible for the developmental the anvironmental Community and public health emphasic in the TY / 4. In this position he was responsible for the development of the environmental, community and public health emphasis in the the environmental, community and public health emphasis in the service of the University's first phn student he service of the University's first phn student he service of the University's first phn student health expenses the University of the Univer tne environmental, community and public nealth emphasis in the School. As well as supervising the University's first PhD student, a School. As well as supervising the Masters Degree in Public Health a conceived and penotiated the Masters Degree in Public Health. School. As well as supervising the university's first PhU student, ne conceived and negotiated the Masters Degree in Public Health, a conceived and negotiated the three Brichage Universities supported to the property of th conceived and negotiated the Masters Degree in Public Health, a collaborative offering by the three Brisbane universities supported that the Collaboration was a national by the State Department of Health. This collaboration was a national by the State Department of Health. collaborative orrering by the three Brisbane universities supported by the State Department of Health. This collaboration was a national by the State Department of Health. first for public health education in Australia.

From 1989 - 1990, Professor Brownlea served as interim Dean of the Faculty of Health and Rehavioural Sciences elaving a major role rrom 1989 - 1990, Protessor Brownlea served as Interim Dean of the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences, playing a major role the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences, playing a major role the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences, playing a major role the Faculty's innovative approach to the education of indeveloping that Faculty's innovative approach to the education of the faculty of the faculty's innovative approach to the education of the faculty o tne Faculty or Health and Benavioural Sciences, playing a major role in developing that Faculty's innovative approach to the education of health and human convice professionals. In addition to his significant in developing that racuity's innovative approach to the education of health and human service professionals. In addition to his significant health and human service professionals. According to the contributions as Foundation Head of the School of Occupation Head of the School of Occupations nealth and numan service professionals. In addition to his significant contributions as Foundation Head of the School of Occupational Contributions as Foundation Head of the School be was Director. CUILLIUULIONS as roundation nead of the School of Uccupational
Health and Safety and as Deputy Dean (Research), he was Director
Health and Safety and as Deputy Dean (Research), he was Director of two research Centres - the Institute of Applied Social Research Health and Sarety and as Deputy Dean (Kesearch), ne was Director of two research Centres - the Institute of Applied Social Research and the Centre for Strategic Human Services. He supervised the Centre for Strategic Human Services. or two research Centres - the Institute of Applied Social Research and the Centre for Strategic Human Services. He supervised the only three PhD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and the phD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and three PhD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and three PhD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and the PhD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and the PhD graduates in occupational health and cafety in Ouegons and the Ouegons and and the Centre for Strategic Human Services. He supervised the only three PhD graduates in occupational health and safety in Queensland and won national competitive grants totalling almost one million rich dellars for research in presion control genetic manipulation rich and won national competitive grants totalling almost one million, risk dollars for research in erosion control, genetic manipulation, health management doctor patient relationships occupational health dollars for research in erosion control, genetic manipulation, risk management, doctor patient relationships, occupational health management, doctor patient relationships, and safety health care in remote areas and safety health care in the safety health care in th management, doctor patient relationships, occupational health care.

and safety, health care in remote areas and self helping health care. and sarety, nearth care in remote areas and seir neiping nearth care.

Professor Brownlea's distinguished service to community health

Professor Brownlea's distinguished service to community Professor Browniess distinguished service to community health was recognised in January 1992 when he was appointed a Member of the Order of Auctralia

In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the University for over twenty years Professor Brownles was conferred Criffith's in recognition or his outstanding contributions to the university for over twenty years, Professor Brownlea was conferred at the title honorary degree of 'Doctor of the University' as well as the title honorary degree of 'Doctor of the University' as well as the title tor over twenty years, Professor Brownlea was conferred Griffith's honorary degree of 'Doctor of the University', as well as the title honorary degree of 'Doctor of the University' as well as the title of the Order of Australia. of Professor Emeritus, in 1996.

