The Griffith English Language Institute Enrolment Fee is non-refundable.

3.6.7 Refund Conditions for Off-shore Programs

The University reserves the right to apply specific and different fee refund conditions to students enrolled in off-shore programs. Any such specific and different fee refund conditions will be outlined in the offer letter.

3.6.8 Program Transfer

If the student transfers from one program to another, the student is liable for the tuition fee related to the new program. Where the student has already paid the tuition fee for the first program, and the new program has a higher tuition fee, the student must pay the additional tuition fee. Where the new program has a lower tuition fee, any tuition fees in credit will be credited towards the remaining tuition fees or refunded as provided in Section 3.6.4 and 3.6.5.

3.6.9 Withdrawal from Course

If the student withdraws from a course but does not withdraw from the program, and the withdrawal is affected prior to the census date, the tuition fee for that course will normally be credited towards the remaining or future tuition fees.

Alternatively, on application from the student, approval may be given for the tuition fee to be refunded except where the amount is part of the initial deposit paid as specified in the Offer Letter. In this instance, the credit will be held in the student account and applied to future tuition or until the student withdraws from the program, then Section 3.6.4 applies as necessary.

3.6.10 Withdrawal from course on granting of credit

If a student receives credit for a course in which they are enrolled, the full tuition fee paid by the student for that course will be treated according to section 3.6.4 and 3.6.5, even if notification of credit approval is received after the census date.

3.6.11 Withdrawal in Compassionate Circumstances - Grounds for Refund

Withdrawal in compassionate circumstances may be accepted as grounds for a full or partial refund of tuition fees. Compassionate circumstances may include but are not limited to:

- a serious illness or disability which prevents the student from being able to study; or

- b death of a close family member (parent, grandparent, sibling, spouse or child); or
- c political or civil event or natural disaster which prevents payment of fees.

These reasons may be accepted as grounds for a full or partial refund of fees for any of the scenarios prescribed in Section 3.6.4, 3.6.5 and 3.6.6, provided that adequate documentary evidence is provided to support the application for a refund.

The student may also be eligible for withdrawal without academic penalty.

3.6.12 Permanent Residency

If a student provides evidence of becoming a permanent resident of Australia prior to their commencement of study in the program and they subsequently apply for a place as an Australian resident student either as a Commonwealth supported student or a fee-paying student through the normal processes the offer of an international student place will be withdrawn and all tuition fees will be refunded.

If, after commencing study in the program, a student obtains permanent resident status in Australia and provides evidence of permanent resident status prior to the census date, the student will be provided with either a Commonwealth Supported Place or a domestic fee-paying place through the normal admission processes. The student will be eligible for a refund of the difference between the fee as an international student and the fee for a domestic student for the period of study in which the residency status changed.

If a student obtains permanent resident status after the census date, the student will not be eligible for a full or partial refund of tuition fees paid for the period of study in which the residency status changed. On continuing their enrolment in the next period of study, the student will be provided with either in a Commonwealth Supported Place or a domestic fee-paying place through the normal admission processes.

The above processes also apply to an international student who becomes a New Zealand citizen during the course of their study.

3.6.13 Remittance of Refund

Active students must use the Refund of Fees online form and attach any required supporting documents. If the online form is unavailable due to the student no longer being active, the manual Refund Form can be submitted with any required supporting documents.

In the event that the information provided in the refund application is not complete and further information is required, the processing timeline will not commence until the requested information has been submitted.

All refunds for which students are eligible, with the exception of refunds arising from withdrawal due to special circumstances will be:

- a Refunded to the student via the original payment method where possible to the student's home country, less any costs associated with the refund process; or
- b Upon application by the student, if the student is approved to transfer to another Australian education institution, subject to the receipt of documentary evidence from the education institution regarding the student, including the Letter of Offer and Confirmation of Enrolment, payment may be made to the student's Australian bank account.

An application by a student for a refund to be paid to them at an Australian address will only be considered if evidence is provided that the fees were paid from an Australian bank account or if there are exceptional circumstances.

Student refunds are normally paid to the person or organisation which originally paid the fees unless documentary evidence is available to justify payment to a third party. Student refunds are not paid to Agents.

Refunds cannot be paid until Griffith University is in receipt of the monies into its account as cleared funds.

Any debts to Griffith University must be paid in full or the outstanding amounts will be deducted from the refund which is due.

3.6.14 Review of the Refund Assessment Decision

If a student is dissatisfied with the refund assessment decision, the student may forward an application for review of the decision to the Deputy Director, Griffith International, using the Review of a Decision form in accordance with the Student Review and Appeals Policy and Student Review and Appeals Procedures. The decision of the Deputy Director, Griffith International is final.

Note: This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek a review of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

PAYMENT OF REFUNDS

To seek a refund you must complete a Request for Refund Form. Applications for a refund are generally processed within 28 days. Refunds can be credited toward the next trimester's fees with no submission of a refund form. This will occur automatically on the next trimester's enrolment tuition calculation.
