Guidelines for training groups

To allow for effective cohesion between training groups, the following guidelines apply:

- Coaches and athletes are to communicate respectfully with one another at all times.
- Situational awareness is to be exercised when using the track so that multiple groups may operate with effective cohesion.
- Groups/squads to limit size to 20 participants during high usage times where possible.
- Drills to be conducted off the track where possible or in an agreed manner that allows for effective cohesion between groups.
- Where possible, starting blocks and other equipment are to be placed in such a way that they do not impede on other users.
- Athletes are to wait off to the side of the track until commencing each new rep.
- Athletes to keep the track clear when returning to the start point of a new rep.

Guidelines for bookings

- User groups with confirmed bookings are entitled to access agreed spaces within the agreed times of the booking.
- Additional terms and conditions relating to bookings will be provided to the user upon confirmation of the booking.
