

Chaplaincy at Griffith

A safe place for people of any faith or worldview

Chaplains:

- encourage community building
- seek compassion and justice for all
- keep in touch with various faith communities
- assist in opening up questions of life and death
- encourage discussions about reality and meaning
- promote literacy in religious and spiritual matters
- think everyone has spiritual tools that they can use
- make the university a safer place for people of faith
- respect those who hold different beliefs to their own
- provide one on one pastoral care for students and staff
- can assist in rites of passage like birth, marriage and death
