1. How do I apply for the JPLT?

- Please register online at: <http://www.jpf.org.au/jlpt>
- Applications are administered centrally by the Japan Foundation, Sydney. If you experience any problems during registration, please contact: jlpt@jpf.org.au

2. Can I take the exam for more than one level?

The exam is held simultaneously around the world, so it is not possible to take more than one level at the same exam session time.

3. Fees & Payment

Please make your payment via the online link which will appear once you submit your online application.

Level N1, N2 & N3: $95.00 (AUD)

Level N4 & N5: $85.00 (AUD)

Please read the Test guide for terms and conditions of the JLPT. If you experience any problems during online registration, please contact: jlpt@jpf.org.au

4. When will I receive my test voucher?

- The Japan Foundation will email your test voucher, approximately one month prior to the test day.
- Please print the voucher, as you will need to bring it on the test day.
- If you have not received yours, please email jlpt@jpf.org.au

5. How do I prepare for the test?

For test sample material please refer to: <http://www.jlpt.jp/e/samples/forlearners.html>

6. What is the format of the exam?

It is entirely in multiple questions – answers format, where your kanji, vocabulary, grammar, reading and listening abilities are tested. There is no interview or oral paper.

7. I'm a Queensland Secondary student studying Japanese, how does the JLPT help me?

The Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) will recognise students who pass N4 or N5. Students can receive 2 credit points towards their Queensland Certificate of Education.
