Comments

"The research environment is great, almost everyone is supportive and helpful and assists in the personal and professional growth of HDR students. It's a welcoming environment."
- Domestic candidate

"Honestly, I love it. Although there are always things that can improve, Griffith provides a nurturing and supportive HDR environment (outside pandemic lockdowns haha). I genuinely enjoy my work."

Comments

"Great research environment that encourages advances in research and publication."
- Full-time candidate

"It has been positive and reaffirming to study at Griffith. Given [my] PT status it [can be] hard to keep up with PD events and opportunities but given their virtual nature this has been made more flexible."
- Part-time candidate

Comments

"Excellent quality research with good internal standing makes me confident my work will be well regarded for years to come."
- Doctoral candidate

"It is highly professional and incredibly supportive. The research community and its members are so well informed and genuinely interested in the HDR participants."
- Research Masters candidate

 Resources, facilities and support

"The standard and availability of resources and facilities are outstanding. They are appropriate for HDR. Resources are sufficient (work-space, stationery, financial, supervision etc.)."

 Supervision

"The supervision I receive is top notch. My supervisors are really supportive and guide me, providing me with the essential knowledge and training. Further, both of them are really easy to approach, therefore it is really helpful to discuss all the issues and progress of the research with them. They allow me to work independently and also provide the opportunity to build my network with collaborations with internal as well as external stakeholders. The supervision is exceptional and I feel lucky to be a HDR student under their supervision at Griffith."

 Skills development

"Research environment at Griffith is great as it provides lots of networking and training opportunities for HDR candidates. I consider it as vital for our skill enhancement as well as for future employments as it gives an idea of what the industry expectations are."
