

Element	Key Focus Area	Values and Commitments
	Leadership	First Peoples Leadership is represented by the grey inside circle
	Leadership	Griffith leadership is represented by the red surrounding circles.
	First Peoples Knowledge	The Ancestors and Elders are represented by the surrounding black circle protecting and guiding all that's within.
	Learning and Teaching	Learning and Teaching is represented by the white concentric dots connecting the 8 health schools to the graduation cap circle.
	Learning and Teaching	Highly skilled, highly educated proud Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student success is represented by the graduation cap in centre.
	Engagement	The concentric dots represent the many individuals working together on a common goal and focus of better social, emotional and cultural wellbeing for our nation's First Peoples.
	Engagement	The 5 larger meeting place circles represent the 5 Griffith Campuses.
	Research	Research is represented by the colour red in the logo.